We cherish too, the Poppy red, which grows on fields where valor led,
It seems to signal to the skies that blood of heroes never dies.

John 15:13 Prayer

Almighty God, We are in awe of those who lay down
Their lives so that the people of the United States could be free.
We remember the fallen service members that show the type of greater Love we all aspire to have. Make sure their lives are not in vain and they Help us to always think of how we can be a service of others.

Amen.

“Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.”

John 15:13
