

President Pam's eligibility is through her father Wilmer Magginnis who served during WWII. Pam is a 46 year member of Post 97 in Auburn Indiana. She is currently the unit treasurer and is the editor of the Award Winning Post newsletter. Pam is also active in the 4th District as Leadership chairman.

Pam has three brothers and one sister, which are all members of Post 97. Her extended family includes three sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law. She is proud to call her sister-in-law Nancy Magginnis her mentor and friend.

Pam worked for Magnavox/Raytheon for 34 years. She held the positions of manufacturing supervisor, production engineer assistant, and secretary. As secretary she was responsible for the field integration team members. These employees were all retired military that worked on the military bases as contractor's through-out the world. She was responsible for their domestic travel arrangements, security clearances, and international travel. This position has given her the knowledge of what it is like in the military life, which has served her well in her Auxiliary life. She has a great passion for the veterans and their families.

Pam believes whole heartily in "service, not self"
